Alabama State Board of Licensure for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors impose any or all of the disciplinary penalties set forth in Code of Alabama 1975, Section 34-11-11.

(2) Stay of Execution of Order. The Board may, in its discretion, permanently or temporarily stay the execution of its order to censure, place on probation, fine, revoke, or suspend a licensee respondent's license, certification, or certificate of authorization. The Board may, in its discretion, permanently or temporarily stay the execution of its order to fine a non-licensee respondent. The stay may be conditioned on any provision the Board deems appropriate under all the circumstances of a particular case.

(3) Consideration. In determining whether a license, certification or certificate of authorization should be revoked or suspended, and whether execution of the order should be stayed, and upon what conditions, the Board shall consider all relevant factors.

(4) The Board shall not accept voluntary surrender of a license, certification or certificate of authorization to avoid possible disciplinary actions by the Board.

Statutory Authority: Section 34-11-11; Section 34-11-35, Code of Alabama 1975

Effective date: September 10, 1982. Amended: December 19, 1984, October 20, 1987, October 28, 1998, and January 16, 2009.

330-X-16-.07 Reissuance of Licensure or Certification after Revocation, Surrender, or Suspension.

(1) Revocation or Surrender. Any person, corporation, partnership, or firm whose license, certification, or certificate of authorization has been revoked or surrendered may apply, when permitted by Law, to the Board for reissuance of the license, certification, or certificate of authorization.

(a) In the application for reissuance, the applicant should state why the license, certification, or certificate of authorization should be reissued and should specifically set forth any changed circumstances which would justify reissuance.

(b) Upon receipt of such application the Board shall grant the applicant a hearing on reissuance, at which time the applicant may appeal to the Board to reissue his or her license, certification, or certificate of authorization.

(2) Suspension. Any person, corporation, partnership, or form whose license, certification, or certificate of authorization has been suspended may apply, when permitted by Law, to the Board for reissuance of the license, certification, or certificate of authorization.

(a) Thirty days prior to the completion of the suspension, the Board will send a notification to the suspended person, corporation, partnership, or firm outlining the necessary actions that need to be taken in order for the license, certification, or certificate of authorization to be reissued.

(b) If all conditions for reissuance of a license or a certificate of authorization have been met, but a request for reissuance is not received within thirty days after completion of the suspension period, the status of the license or certificate of authorization will be changed to lapsed.

(c) If a request for reissuance is not received within four years from the time the license is placed in lapsed status, the license will be considered expired.

(d) If a request for reissuance is not received within two years from the time the certificate of authorization is placed in lapsed status, the certificate of authorization will be considered expired.

(e) If all conditions for reissuance for a certification have been met, but a request for reissuance of a certification is not received within thirty days after completion of the suspension period, the status of the certification will be changed to delinquent.
