Proposed Amended Rule

190-X-4-.08 Restoration Of A Refused, Revoked, Or Cancelled License. REPEALED

(1) Application for Restoration.

(a) Any person whose license or permit has been refused, revoked or cancelled may at any time after two (2) years of such refusal, revocation or cancellation apply to the Board for restoration of their license or permit. The fee for restoration shall be in an amount set by annual resolution of the board, but not to exceed on-half the amount of the annual license fee. The application for restoration shall include both evidence that the individual meets the current requirements for license or permit and the reasons justifying restoration. The Board may, by a majority vote, grant the application and restore the license or permit.

(b) In the event the Board grants the application and deems it necessary, the applicant must thereafter take and successfully pass an examination approved by the Board.
