380-X-3-.03 Application Administration For License After Eighteen Months Experience

The Board, at its discretion, may administer the licensing examination to forestry students prior to graduation or at any time during an applicant's two year post graduation experience. The Board will consider all other applicants for an examination upon the completion of two years of qualifying experience. Applicants with eighteen (18) months of qualifying experience may submit applications for licensing to the Board for consideration. The Board will consider such applicants and may schedule them for an examination to be given after such time as two years of qualifying experience so that two full years of experience will appear on the record prior to the scheduled examination date.
