Board of Examiners of Assisted Living Administrators
NOTICE OF INTENDED ACTION

AGENCY NAME: Board of Examiners of Assisted Living Administrators

RULE NO. & TITLE: 135-X-5-.06 (1) – Grading Examinations

INTENDED ACTION: Amend the above referenced rule.

SUBSTANCE OF PROPOSED ACTION: The Board of Examiners of Assisted Living Administrators proposes to amend Rule 135-X-5-.06 by changing the passing test scores effective January 1, 2014 and July 1, 2014:

“Each applicant for a Category I or II assisted living administrator’s license shall be required to pass Sections A and B of the examination for such license with a grade as determined by the Board. The Board has determined that Section A and Section B of the Category I or Category II State examination will be used for the written or oral examination administered to all applicants, and the applicant must obtain a score of at least 80% on each section of the Category I or Category II State examination. Effective January 1, 2014 all applicants must obtain a passing score of at least 85% on each section of the Category I or Category II State Examination. Effective July 1, 2014 all applicants must obtain a passing score of at least 90% on each section of the Category I or Category II State Examination.” All applicants who apply and are approved by the Board through reciprocity shall be required to take Section A of either the Category I or Category II examination, determined by the license for which the applicant has applied. The applicant must obtain a score of at least 80% on Section A of the Category I or Category II State examination. Effective January 1, 2014 the applicant must obtain a score of at least 85% on Section A of the Category I or Category II State Examination. Effective July 1, 2014 the applicant must obtain a score of at least 90% on Section A of the Category I or Category II State Examination.”
